1. Driver, fleet manager, owner and safety director.
2. No
- 3,4,5,14. They already have commercial driving schools to train people that choose a career in driving. The school trains them in all phases of driving, assists them in acquiring a CDL license and also helps them get a job.
6. Our present driving system already considers past driving records.
7. With our present system, you should not be driving with any of these convictions.
8. There should be no double standards.
- 9,10. Commercial driving schools should determine the time period according to the individuals driving skills.
11. Regardless of what type or class of drivers license they have, you should require an MVR and a road test.
- 12,13. The age requirement should be 21 for a CDL.
15. I don't see anything wrong with the present system.
16. I feel that any more paperwork or costs added to our present system would not accomplish anything.
